Morgan Hill, CA – July 7, 2015 – Purchasing video walls and large display systems is now easier than ever. Volanti Displays has teamed up with Taycor Financial to offer financing options to commercial customers. A simple financing calculator helps customers instantly estimate their monthly payment.

“As video display technology evolves, including multi-touch and 4K solutions, customers are looking to upgrade, expand their equipment, or enter the market for the first time,” stated Michael Sarich, Volanti’s Business Development Manager. “Offering financing will provide options for many of our customers.”

James Henry, CEO of Volanti Displays added, “With Taycor as a financing partner, the process is simple, and purchasing a video display system no longer requires a large capital outlay. Instead low monthly payments make the purchase manageable.”
