

Forza Mobile Video-Wall Now Enhanced With Free Media Player

Date : October 20, 2014

Video-wall technology when you need it, where you need it

Volanti Displays has enhanced its Forza Mobile Video-Wall with a limited time offer of a free Full-HD media player with every Forza purchase. The media player is conveniently stored within the Forza mobile unit for easy use.

The ingenious Forza video-wall delivers a brilliant 94” or 110” display, packed in two rugged mobile carts that transform into the stands. Simply roll in place, pop up the gas-spring mechanism and connect the pre-configured wiring, a complete video-wall in a matter of minutes.

The Forza has wowed the crowd at a recent facilities expo. “People kept coming back for a second look,” said Michael Sarich, Business Development Manager for Volanti Displays. “Having a totally self-contained, transportable video-wall solution, ready-to-go in a matter of minutes, is quite unique,” added Sarich.

The transportable Forza video-wall is ideal for meetings, trade shows, fundraisers, museums, galleries, retail spaces or anywhere you might want to engage your audience.
