

Mobile Video-Wall for Trade Shows & Events

Date : October 13, 2014

Large screen portable video-wall where you need it, when you need it

Morgan Hill, CA – October 13, 2014 – Volanti Displays new innovative product, Forza Mobile Video-Wall, is changing the way companies display their products at shows and events. The Forza can boost your presence at trade events by bringing a powerful visual message to any target audience.

“In the past, only large companies, with deep pockets, could afford an attention getting video-wall at events. The Forza mobile video-wall has changed that,” said James Henry, CEO of Volanti Displays. “it is literally easy enough for the event team to set-up themselves within 20 minutes’.

Quick set-up and take down, in a minimum amount of space, is what really makes this video-wall such a unique product. The mobile unit is delivered in robust wheeled carts that transform into the base and frame. In less than 20 minutes a complete 94” or 110” video wall is ready to use.

Forza display monitors offer full HD, IPS technology–brilliant color with superb viewing angle. Visitors crowding around your trade show booth or event will be able to view your display from wide angles.

Volanti Forza, an on-the-go, big screen solution.
